

Jesus Comes Back to Jerusalem as King of Kings

The Bible foretells a glorious return of Jesus Christ to Jerusalem, a moment of triumph that will mark the beginning of His eternal kingdom. This event, described in the Book of Revelation, will see Jesus riding a white horse, symbolizing victory and peace, as He descends upon the holy city. His arrival will be accompanied by a heavenly escort of angels and a chorus of voices praising His name.

by janice wright

The Throne of the Universe

The Coronation

In a scene of unparalleled majesty, Jesus Christ will be crowned King of Kings and Lord of Lords on the throne of David in Jerusalem. This event, described in Revelation 1:4-8, will see Jesus riding a white horse, symbolizing victory and peace, as He descends upon the city. The heavens will open, and angelic hosts will gather to witness this momentous occasion, their voices ringing out in praise of the returning King. The faithful, gathered from all nations, will rejoice at the fulfillment of ancient prophecies.

The Eternal Reign

From His throne in Jerusalem, Jesus will rule with perfect justice and righteousness, ushering in a new era of peace and prosperity for all nations. He will establish God's intended order for the world, fulfilling the promises made to Abraham and David, restoring Israel to its rightful place as God's chosen people, and bringing forth a time of justice and mercy for all who have placed their faith in Him.

The New Jerusalem

Jerusalem, the city of David, will be transformed into a magnificent, heavenly metropolis. The New Jerusalem, as described in Revelation 21, will be a city of pure gold, adorned with precious stones, a testament to God's glory and power. It will be a place of joy and peace, where there will be no more pain, sorrow, or death. This magnificent city will serve as the capital of Christ's everlasting kingdom, a beacon of hope for all who long for a world redeemed.

The Fulfillment of Prophecies

Old Testament Prophecies

The return of Jesus Christ to Jerusalem as the Messianic King will fulfill a multitude of ancient prophecies found in the Old Testament scriptures. The prophets spoke of a coming King who would be born in Bethlehem, descend from the line of David, and rule with justice and peace. They foretold of His suffering and death, His resurrection, and His eventual triumph over sin and death.

New Testament Promises

The Gospels and the writings of the apostles are replete with promises of Christ's second coming and the establishment of His eternal kingdom. The Gospels speak of Jesus' own predictions of His return in glory, and the Book of Revelation paints a vivid picture of His triumphant arrival. The apostles, inspired by the Holy Spirit, reiterated these promises, assuring believers that Christ's return is a certainty.

Prophetic Convergence

The return of Jesus to Jerusalem as the King of Kings will mark the convergence of all the prophetic promises found throughout the Bible. This event will see the fulfillment of God's ancient covenant with Abraham and the restoration of Israel to its rightful place as His chosen people. It will also usher in a new era of peace and prosperity for all nations, bringing to fruition the dreams of prophets like Isaiah, Micah, and Zechariah.

The Second Coming of Christ

Jesus Christ, the King of Kings, will return to Earth in a glorious, visible manifestation, coming with power and great glory to establish His eternal kingdom in Jerusalem.

His triumphant arrival will be a spectacle of awe and wonder, a breathtaking display of divine power that will shake the very foundations of the earth. The forces of darkness will tremble at His presence as Jesus decisively defeats Satan and his demonic minions, forever ending their reign of terror and oppression.

The moment of Christ's return will mark the culmination of history, a pivotal moment where God's justice will be fully realized. Jesus will judge the nations, separating the sheep from the goats, rewarding the righteous with eternal life and consigning the wicked to a fiery judgment.

With the establishment of His kingdom, a new era of peace and justice will dawn upon the earth. War, hunger, and disease will be no more, replaced by harmony, prosperity, and the blessings of God's presence.

The return of the Messiah to Jerusalem will fulfill God's ancient promises to His chosen people. The nation of Israel, once scattered and oppressed, will be restored to its rightful place as God's chosen people, experiencing the fulfillment of the covenants made to Abraham and the prophets.

The Restoration of Israel

The Regathering of the Exiles

The Jewish people, scattered throughout the world for centuries, will be miraculously gathered back to the land of Israel. This prophesied return will mark a time of national restoration, fulfilling the ancient covenants made with Abraham and the prophets. The fulfillment of these promises will be a tangible demonstration of God's faithfulness and His enduring love for His chosen people.

The Rebuilding of the Temple

The magnificent temple in Jerusalem, the heart of Jewish worship and the center of the Jewish faith, will be rebuilt with even greater glory. This monumental undertaking will signify the return of the Lord's presence to Jerusalem and the renewal of His covenant with Israel. This temple will once again become the spiritual heart of the nation and a beacon of faith for the entire world.

The Outpouring of the Spirit

A profound spiritual awakening will sweep over the Jewish people as the Holy Spirit is poured out upon them. This outpouring will result in a widespread understanding of Jesus as the Messiah and the fulfillment of all the prophecies that foretold His coming. As a result, a new era of spiritual revival will dawn upon Israel.

The Fulfillment of God's Promises

The restoration of Israel will be the culmination of God's faithful promises to His chosen people. This monumental event will demonstrate His unwavering love and commitment to His covenant with Israel, assuring them of His ongoing protection and guidance.

The Judgment of the Nations

1

The Separation of the Sheep and the Goats

The Lord Jesus Christ will separate the righteous from the unrighteous. Those who have believed in Him and followed His teachings will be gathered to His right hand, while those who have rejected Him and His salvation will be placed to His left.

2

The Judgment of the Living

The judgment of the nations will not be based solely on their earthly actions, but rather on how they have responded to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Those who have welcomed Him as their Lord and Savior will receive eternal life, while those who have rejected His offer of salvation will face the consequences of their choice.

3

The Eternal Destiny

The faithful will inherit eternal life in the new heaven and new earth, a place of unimaginable joy and peace, where God will dwell with His people. Those who have chosen to reject Christ and His grace will be separated from God's presence for all eternity. This separation from God will be a profound loss, resulting in spiritual and eternal death.

The Reign of Christ on Earth

Jesus will establish His throne in Jerusalem, ruling the world with justice, righteousness, and peace. This will be the fulfillment of prophecy and the beginning of God's kingdom on Earth. All nations will be united under His rule, and the world will experience an unprecedented era of prosperity and spiritual fulfillment.

This will be a time of restoration, as the earth and its inhabitants are healed and restored to their original, pristine state, as intended by the Creator. The world will be a place of beauty and harmony, where people of all nations live together in peace and love.

The coming of Christ will be a time of immense joy and celebration for believers. It will be a time of peace and justice, where the oppressed are lifted up, and the wicked are held accountable for their actions. This will be a time when God's will is done on Earth, as it is in Heaven.

Will You Be There? The Choice is Yours.

The Kingdom of God

Imagine a world where peace reigns supreme, and justice prevails. This is the kingdom of God, a place where believers will find eternal life and fulfillment. It is a place of unimaginable joy and peace, where God dwells with His people. In this kingdom, the earth and its inhabitants are healed and restored to their original pristine state, as intended by the Creator. The world will be a place of beauty and harmony, where people of all nations live together in peace and love.

The Judgment of the Unrighteous

Those who have rejected the gospel and refused to repent will face the consequences of their choices, separated from the presence of God for eternity. They will face eternal separation from God, a profound loss resulting in spiritual and eternal death. This will be a time of immense grief and despair, as they are cast into the lake of fire, a place of eternal torment. The Lord Jesus Christ will separate the righteous from the unrighteous. Those who have believed in Him and followed His teachings will be gathered to His right hand, while those who have rejected Him and His salvation will be placed to His left.

The Choice Before You

The decision to accept or reject Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior will determine your eternal destiny. The judgment of the nations will not be based solely on their earthly actions, but rather on how they have responded to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Those who have welcomed Him as their Lord and Savior will receive eternal life, while those who have rejected His offer of salvation will face the consequences of their choice. The choice is yours, and the time to make it is now. Don't let this opportunity slip away.

Heaven and Hell

The Glories of Heaven

Heaven will be a place of unimaginable joy and peace, where God dwells with His people. It will be a time of immense joy and celebration for believers. It will be a time of peace and justice, where the oppressed are lifted up, and the wicked are held accountable for their actions. This will be a time when God's will is done on Earth, as it is in Heaven.

The Torments of Hell

Those who have rejected the gospel and refused to repent will face the consequences of their choices, separated from the presence of God for eternity. They will face eternal separation from God, a profound loss resulting in spiritual and eternal death. This will be a time of immense grief and despair, as they are cast into the lake of fire, a place of eternal torment.

The Choice Before Us

The decision to accept or reject Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior will determine your eternal destiny. The judgment of the nations will not be based solely on their earthly actions, but rather on how they have responded to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Those who have welcomed Him as their Lord and Savior will receive eternal life, while those who have rejected His offer of salvation will face the consequences of their choice. The choice is yours, and the time to make it is now. Don't let this opportunity slip away.

God's Final Victory

The Establishing of God's Eternal Kingdom

The second coming of Christ will mark the beginning of God's eternal kingdom on earth, where righteousness and justice will reign supreme. Jesus Christ will return in power and glory, establishing a new era of peace and harmony that will last forever. This kingdom will be a place where God's will is done on earth, as it is in heaven, and where the righteous will inherit eternal life.

The Reign of the King of Kings

The Messiah, seated upon His throne in Jerusalem, will rule over all nations with absolute authority. His reign will bring an end to injustice, oppression, and suffering. The people of the earth will recognize Jesus as the supreme Lord and Savior, united in their allegiance to the King of Kings.

The Unification of All Peoples

Under the Messiah's benevolent reign, the people of the earth will be united as one global family. The barriers of race, language, and nationality will be broken down as the nations submit to the King of Kings. This will be a time of unprecedented unity and fellowship, fulfilling the promise of God's eternal plan for His creation.

Signs of the End Times

Celestial Disturbances

As the time of the second coming draws near, the heavens will display extraordinary signs, signaling a cosmic upheaval. Unprecedented celestial phenomena, such as eclipses, comets, and meteor showers, will illuminate the night sky. Furthermore, extreme weather patterns, such as unprecedented floods, droughts, and earthquakes, will wreak havoc across the globe, serving as a stark reminder of the imminent return of the Messiah.

Global Conflicts

In the latter days, the earth will be engulfed in escalating conflicts, with wars and violence erupting on an unprecedented scale. Political unrest will sweep across nations, as power struggles and ideological clashes intensify. The world will witness a breakdown in international order, as alliances crumble and nations turn against each other. This tumultuous period will be a prelude to the return of Jesus Christ, who will bring an end to these conflicts and usher in a new era of peace and harmony.

Societal Upheaval

The end times will be marked by a profound societal upheaval, as the foundations of civilization crumble. Widespread famines will plague the earth, while pestilences and disease will spread like wildfire. The moral fabric of society will disintegrate, as law and order breaks down, and chaos reigns supreme. These signs, prophesied in Scripture, will be a powerful reminder of the coming judgment, as the world prepares for the return of its rightful King.

The New Earth

Renewed Creation

The new earth will be a perfect paradise, free from the effects of sin and the curse. Mountains will reach for the heavens, rivers will flow with crystal clear water, and lush green forests will cover the land. The animals will be tame and friendly, and all of creation will reflect the glory of God. This will be a time of unparalleled beauty and harmony, as the earth is restored to its original state of perfection, fulfilling God's original design for His creation.

Harmonious Cities

The cities of the new earth will be places of beauty and wonder. They will be designed with advanced technology that makes life easier and more enjoyable. There will be no poverty, hunger, or disease. Everyone will have access to the best education and healthcare. The cities will be centers of learning and creativity, where people can pursue their passions and fulfill their God-given potential. These cities will be a testament to the reign of Christ, where peace, prosperity, and joy will reign supreme.

Uniting Humanity

The inhabitants of the new earth will be a diverse, yet united family. All ethnicities, languages, and cultures will be represented in the new creation. People will be able to communicate with each other easily and peacefully. They will live in harmony with one another, celebrating their differences and enjoying the blessings of God's presence. This will be a time of unprecedented unity and fellowship, as the people of the earth are brought together under the banner of Christ, the King of Kings.

The Rapture: Christ's Secret Return

The Rapture

This is when believers who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior will be taken up to heaven to meet the Lord in the air. This event, described in 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17, will mark the beginning of the tribulation period, a time of great upheaval and judgment on earth.

A Joyous Event

The rapture will be a joyous event, a fulfillment of the promise of God to rescue His children from the coming tribulation and judgment. It will be a moment of incredible joy and celebration, as believers are reunited with their Savior and ushered into His eternal presence. This event will signal the beginning of God's plan of redemption and the eventual restoration of all things.

The Great Tribulation

Upheaval and Destruction

The Great Tribulation will be a time of unprecedented global upheaval, as natural disasters, wars, and persecution ravage the earth. Cities will be left in ruins, and people will live in fear and desperation. The very fabric of society will unravel, as the world plunges into chaos.

Suffering and Persecution

During this period, believers in Christ will face intense persecution, with many being martyred for their faith. The unrighteous will also experience God's judgment, as His wrath is poured out on a rebellious world. The Antichrist will rise to power, deceiving the nations and leading them astray.

A Glimmer of Hope

Despite the overwhelming darkness and despair, the Great Tribulation will also be a time of spiritual awakening, as many turn to God in their hour of need, seeking His salvation and deliverance. This period of tribulation will serve as a catalyst for many to turn to God, ultimately resulting in a great harvest of souls for His kingdom.

God's Justice

Righteous Judgment

The Great Tribulation will culminate in the judgment of the nations, where God's justice will be fully revealed. Those who rejected Christ's offer of salvation will face the consequences of their choices, experiencing the full force of God's righteous wrath. This judgment will be swift and decisive, leaving no room for doubt or escape. It will be a terrifying yet just demonstration of God's power and holiness.

Impartial Judgment

God's judgment will be impartial, meting out justice to each person according to their actions and intentions. The scales of justice will be balanced perfectly, ensuring that every person receives what they deserve. No one will be spared, and no one will be unjustly punished. It will be a just and equitable judgment, reflecting God's unwavering commitment to fairness and righteousness.

Redemptive Justice

The judgment of God will not only be a time of reckoning but also a time of redemption for those who have accepted Christ as their Lord and Savior. During the Great Tribulation, believers will be spared from God's wrath and will be able to witness the unfolding of His judgment from a place of safety and security. This experience will further solidify their faith and deepen their understanding of God's justice and love.

Angels and Demons

Heavenly Hosts

Angels are powerful beings of pure light and love who serve God as messengers and protectors. Throughout Scripture, they are depicted as powerful warriors, often aiding God in His battles against evil. For example, in the Book of Revelation, an angel stands at the door of the temple, holding back the winds of destruction until the seal of God is placed on the foreheads of the righteous. This demonstrates their unwavering loyalty to God and their dedication to carrying out His divine plan.

Fallen Spirits

Demons are fallen angels who rebelled against God and chose to follow Satan. Their purpose is to deceive and corrupt humanity through temptations and evil, ultimately leading them away from God's love and grace. Their power is immense, and they have the ability to inflict harm both physically and spiritually. For example, in the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus casts out demons from a man who was possessed, illustrating the power of demons to influence the minds and bodies of those who fall under their control.

Spiritual Warfare

The eternal struggle between the forces of light and darkness is a reality that impacts the physical world. The Book of Ephesians describes this spiritual warfare as a battle for the hearts and minds of men. Christians are encouraged to put on the full armor of God, which includes the helmet of salvation, the breastplate of righteousness, the shield of faith, and the sword of the Spirit. This emphasizes the importance of spiritual preparedness and vigilance in the face of evil.

God's Grace and Mercy

The Power of the Cross

The sacrifice of Jesus on the cross, was the ultimate expression of God's love for mankind. Through this act, God's grace and mercy are extended to all who believe, offering forgiveness, redemption, and eternal life. By accepting Jesus as Lord and Savior, we are granted access to a relationship with God that was previously unattainable.

The Word of God

The Bible, God's divinely inspired word, reveals the depths of His love and mercy. Its pages offer guidance and comfort, reminding us that God's grace is always available, regardless of our shortcomings or mistakes. Through the Scriptures, we learn about God's plan for salvation and how to access His grace and mercy in our daily lives.

Prayer and Supplication

Prayer is a powerful tool that allows us to connect with God and experience the transformative power of His grace and mercy. By humbly approaching God in prayer, we can express our needs, seek His guidance, and receive comfort, strength, and forgiveness. It is a privilege to be able to communicate with our Creator, and through prayer, we can access the infinite grace and mercy that He so freely offers.

Will You Be There? The Choice is Yours.

The Holy Spirit is calling you, drawing you closer to the Father. This is your moment to turn to Jesus and accept His grace. Embrace the amazing community of believers who will welcome you with open arms and support your journey. Serve our amazing God, and experience the joy and fulfillment that comes from living a life dedicated to Him. Will you answer this call and stand with Jesus when He returns?